Last Monday we played a 2 ball aggregate stableford which requires consistent golf from both players in the group. One pair certainly had it together. Mike McGowan and Phil Hirst combined well and finished with a total score of 70 points to take the winners trophy. Phil was the major player as he also won the individual stableford event which was played in conjunction. In 2nd spot were Rick Furlan and Phil Taylor with 64 points and in 3rd place came Richard Ross and Bob Harvey who also finished on 64 points.

The ball winners were Di Moore and Sonia Bonaccorsi -63, John Porter and Greg Saul- 62, Glen Essex and Clive McLachlan – 60, John Roberts and Glen Crooks – 59 and finally Marlene Roberts and Graham Roberts also with 59.

The nearest the pin winners were Rick Furlan and Sonia Bonaccorsi on the 2nd, Tony Turner and Cathy Ayres on the 7th, Paul Horan on the 11th and 17th and Tony Turner and Molly Plunkett were the Thistle hole winners.

After no golf last Monday because of green renovations, we go to March 4th when we will be playing a single stableford for the monthly medal. This is also the Ballina open day and we have 9 golfers going to Ballina for this.
